

Dear Sirs,

I would most stongly urge you to support a far greater expansion of broadcast control to local communities across the nation as too! much media consolidation and power has been wraped up in just a small handfull of media conglomerates (Viacom, Fox, etc.). We do not want the continuance any longer of a propaganda machine that even the Nazis at the zenith of their power would have envied.